Dear Enzo,

With the conclusion of another successful sale and the closing of another purchase, I thought I would take this opportunity to remind you of our history together in real estate. Can you believe, it has been over thirteen years since the purchase of my first property. Since then, I have estimated, you have successfully negotiated over twenty-five real estate transactions for me.

Your continued devotion, marketing skills, negotiations, and vast amount of knowledge in your industry is remarkable. I owe much of my continued real estate success to you.

I look forward to many more years knowing that I have someone I can trust and most importantly, that you have always had my best interest at heart.

Thanks for being a true professional and a true friend.

Sincerely,

Tim Marschall
